Wylde Bunch has been described as "the musical offspring of Earth Wind and Fire, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Outkast and Sly Stone". We have surely carved out an undeniable niche with an explosive sound and creative genre splicing. To say this rock and hip-hop influenced alternative pop group blazes trails would be a hell of an understatement. Comprised of family members and long-time friends, the south-central Los Angeles natives have pioneered and maintained a sound that infuses elements of rock, funk, and hip-hop music in a signature pop vibe.

There is a misconception by some that bands aren't part of the hip-hop and club music landscape. Wylde Bunch consistently converts those doubts into rocket fuel to power our amazing shows that shake up any party or social event. We have enough charisma to rock Sofi Stadium and we've proved it time again on tour. As the "joe nobody" opening act on major tours, we left crowds unfamiliar with us calling for encores and standing in long lines just to get an autograph or pic with the band.

Wylde Bunch has been part of countless tours, television appearances, major collaborations and features. Our music has been included on EA Sports' most popular video games including Madden, NFL Street, Major League Baseball, Gran Turrismo and more. We've toured alongside Black Eyed Peas, The Roots, Pharrell Williams and N.E.R.D., O.A.R, Slightly Stoopid, and The Xecutioners and shared the stage with Jill Scott, Marsha Ambrosius, Warren G, Bobby Brown, Musiq Soulchild, Faith Evans, Lil' Bow Wow.. it's exhausting just listing them all.

Bottom line is... if you want a sure thing WIN, bet on Wylde Bunch.
